

Dear Tomoko,

It's lovely to hear from you again.

I haven't booked a hotel room yet. Are you sure I can stay at your house? That is so generous of you.

It's a great idea for Kei to join us at your place. I'm looking forward to the three of us catching up and chatting.

By the way, I love nature so I'm very happy to go hill walking, enjoy the greenery and see the carp – these are all excellent suggestions.

As this is my first time to visit your country, I'd like to go to as many sightseeing spots as I can. I hear you live in a beautiful place.

Looking forward to seeing you,
John
