

Dear John Sensei,

Thanks for your email. I'm fine as always, thanks. I've finally got used to online classes.

I hope you don't mind if ask a few questions. First, I'm wondering if rather than submitting the homework that is due next week by email, should I hand it in directly at school?

Also, should I come to school in the mornings or the afternoons? And either way, do I have to wear a mask?

It's been over a month since I've met my friends so I can't wait to see them again at school.

Thanks for your help,
Kazuko
